

Mayoral Proclamation

Recognizing the first African American Heritage Worship Celebration in Lemoyne at First Christian Church

WHEREAS, First Christian Church established its place of worship in Lemoyne in 1894; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Delores Neal is now making history as the first African American pastor in Lemoyne; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Neal and her congregation are continuing their vibrant history by holding Lemoyne's first African American Heritage Worship Celebration in the Borough on February 28, 2016; and

WHEREAS, Pastor Neal and her congregation have chosen to honor individuals in the community who have given themselves selflessly and wholeheartedly to help those in need around us; and

WHEREAS, Lemoyne Borough would not be nearly as nice a place to live, and would not be the little town that has it all, if we were not blessed with the presence of all of the wonderful worshippers at First Christian Church; and

WHEREAS, Lemoyne Borough would like to thank Pastor Neal and her congregation for all of its outstanding contributions to the community and to commemorate this special African American Heritage worship celebration.

NOW THEREFORE, As Mayor of the Borough of Lemoyne, I hereby proclaim the 28th of February, 2016 as

First Christian Church Day in Lemoyne.

This proclamation was issued by Larissa York, Mayor of the Borough of Lemoyne on February 28th, 2016.
